Communicate your research and advance your career

AuthorAID is a global research community which provides networking, mentoring, resources and training for researchers worldwide with the aim of helping them to progress in their research careers.

How will I benefit from mentoring?
AuthorAID mentors are experienced researchers and are encouraged to be supportive and helpful. They may be able to provide advice on some or all of the following:
- Research methods and analysis
- Appropriate journals for submitting manuscripts
- Writing scientific papers: content, organization, and style
- The peer review process and responding to referees' comments
- Presentations and posters
- Preparing grant proposals
- Scientific communication in general

How does the mentoring process work?
Setting up a mentoring relationship can be done entirely online, via the following steps:
- Register for AuthorAID at www.authoraid.info and indicate that you are interested in receiving mentoring support
- Fill in your AuthorAID profile

Make a difference
Sign up to become an AuthorAID mentor

The main goal of the AuthorAID site is to allow early career researchers in developing countries to find mentors who can help them to progress in their research careers. Finding committed mentors is therefore essential to the success of the project.

What sort of potential mentor is AuthorAID looking for?
- An experienced researcher, with a track record of publications
- Someone who is diplomatic and can encourage and support early-career researchers in developing countries
- Someone who is committed and enthusiastic and who is not looking for academic gain

What skills do I need?
We're seeking experienced researchers who may be able provide advice on some or all of the following:
